“Countries like ours are full of people who have all the material comforts they desire, together with such non-material blessings as a happy family, and yet lead lives of quiet, and at times noisy, desperation, understanding nothing but the fact that there is a hole inside them and that however much food and drink they pour into it, however many cars and tv's they stuff it with, however many well balanced children and loyal friends they parade around the edges of it... it aches”.

Bernard Levin

A photograph of a winding asphalt road through a dense forest. The road has two white lines and curves to the right. The trees are lush green, and the scene is captured in a slightly dim, natural light. A white rectangular text box is overlaid on the upper left portion of the image.

John 14:6

“You can have everything in the world and still be the loneliest man, and that is the bitterest type of loneliness. Success has brought me world idolization and millions of pounds, but is preventing me from having the one thing we all need: a loving ongoing relationship”.

Freddie Mercury

A bright sun is centered in the upper half of the frame, surrounded by a soft, hazy glow. The sky is a pale, uniform color. In the lower portion of the image, the dark silhouettes of trees and a street lamp are visible against the lighter sky. A white rectangular box is positioned in the lower right, containing the text "I am the TRUTH".

“Christianity is a statement which,
if false, is of no importance, and,
if true, of infinite importance.
The one thing it cannot be is moderately important.”

C. S. Lewis
